ABOUT SERENITY

Serenity helps people manifest their dream visions by taking a courageous, adventurous, and yet serene approach to life. Overall, achieving this through offering coaching, hosting international events, sharing 100's of resources on her blog, publishing books, and public speaking. With over 400+ successful coaching sessions, 50+ hosted events, her blog Manifesting Serenity with over 500k+ metrics, her book "It's Time To Manifest Your Vision" on Amazon, and her presenting as a keynote speaker for 100's of people; she's here to inspire.

Despite overcoming challenges such as childhood abuse, poverty, growing up around addiction, bullying, eating disorders, seasonal depression, divorce, car accidents, death, and complex PTSD with anxiety and panic attacks; she has developed a strong sense of resiliency and trust in herself. Above all, rising above the life that she was given, creating an entirely new one for herself, and helping others do the same.

Essentially; From Complex PTSD to Independent World Traveler, Courageous Advocate, Coach, Author, and Speaker!**
